I am writing a few days after the horror of violence that took place at the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida which left 18 people dead, a community in mourning and a shocked nation seemingly unable to find an effective way to stop the carnage. This is the eighteenth school shooting in 2018, and I wonder if there will be another one in the time that it takes for these words to be published and read?

Will the nation have moved on to some other issue, relegating the Parkland school massacre to a fading memory, like Sandy Hook or Columbine? After the dead are buried, and all of the makeshift memorials are swept away; when all of the poignant words are spoken, will we return to our lives believing that nothing can change in the United States of America in 2018? These are the questions that go through my mind as I read the biographies of the victims, see the pain of the families and hear other parents around the country saying that they are afraid to drop off their children at school in the morning. Are we really chained to this violent reality, or is there another path possible for our nation?

Passover is coming.
In a short time, we will gather around the Seder table and tell the story of the Exodus from Egypt and explore the meaning of freedom and enslavement. One of the things that our tradition teaches is that there are chains that our overlords place upon us and those that we put on our ourselves. While Pharaoh was responsible for placing the Israelites in physical bondage, the Israelites engaged in their own internal enslavement; losing all hope in the possibility of freedom. There is a verse in the book of Exodus that reads:

And it came to pass in the process of time, that the king of Egypt died, and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage and they cried, and their cry came up to God by reason of their bondage. [Exodus 2:23]

The Rabbis wonder why the Torah tells us that the people were sighing in this particular moment. Were they not crying out during all of their enslavement? Their answer is instructive. They say that the people had long given up on being freed and were resigned to their slavery. However, when the Pharaoh died, there was a moment when they allowed themselves to see their situation for what it was and dream of a moment of freedom, and so they sighed. In that moment, God heard their cries and responded, and thus, the redemption began. The message that the Rabbis wanted us to understand from this is that our destiny is in our hands. Nothing was going to change as long as the people were resigned to their reality. In order for the Israelites to break the chains of the Egyptians, they had to first address their internal bondage and choose to believe that change was possible. They had to make themselves worthy of redemption.

The parallels to our own age are striking. The constant refrain that we hear in the wake of this latest American shooting is that nothing is going to change.

• The gun lobby is too strong, and politicians are unwilling to move beyond their rhetoric to meaningful action
• Americans are too attached to their guns to even consider any change in legislation
• Mental health challenges are growing in our society and we do not have resources to address them effectively.
• We continue to devalue human life by glorifying violence in American society

If we truly believe that things cannot be different, then we are a nation in bondage. What is clear is that God is not going to prevent such things from happening in the future. We are going to have to take the risks, fight the fight, and walk forward as a nation, discovering that the impossible really is possible one step at a time. We must be willing to make ourselves worthy of our own redemption.
Anshe Emet welcomes sponsored Refugee Family

On Wednesday, February 14, Anshe Emet and Na’aseh, in partnership with RefugeeOne, welcomed a Rohingya Burmese refugee family of four who we will be sponsoring over the coming months.

They are Rohingya Muslims who fled persecution in Burma (now known as Myanmar) in 2002 and have been living as urban refugees in Malaysia. Rohingya Muslims have recently been victims of genocide in Myanmar. Above, Anshe Emet delegation gathers at the airport to greet the family.

World Wide Wrap

The Anshe Emet Men’s Club hosted their annual World Wide Wrap on Sunday, February 4. Rabbi Siegel provided a history of tefillin and instruction on how to properly put them on. Learn more about this event and other Men’s Club news on page 15.

WHICH BAGS SHOULD I PACK FOR MY JOURNEY?

My nephew, his wife and his 3 young children recently visited. As they left, I helped pack their NINE, yes NINE bags into the back of the Uber SUV. If I had to schlep that much, I wouldn't go anywhere. My nephew seemed burdened for his journey back to Boston but onward he went.

Goodness knows, attend a family life event and frequently, one might find more ‘baggage’ than one could ever carry.

In direct contrast, as we are reading in the Book of Exodus, consider how little our Jewish descendants were able to take on their hurried journey out of Egypt. Perhaps they needed more physically for their long perilous journey. But emotionally and spiritually, for slaves of 400 years, they needed to leave the burdens of 400 years of slavery behind, perhaps an impossible task.

I often work out after having prayed. Before beginning, I take my blood pressure. There is a perfect correlation between having prayed and lower blood pressure. I bring the goodness of the spiritual “baggage” which I have packed into my central nervous system along for my day’s journey. But the next day, my blood pressure is back to normal. I need to keep this positive spiritual “baggage” with me longer.

All three situations to which I refer teach us that we don’t have to pack the mishigas for our journey through life. Take the best for the ride, leave the rest behind. Rabbi Siegel speaks of the shoeboxes of mental pictures from our lives embedded in our memories. He counsels people to take out the great memories, the fun times, the people you love. Leave the rest in the shoebox of memory. To be sure, after a loved one dies, we are challenged to preserve the good memories and leave the painful ones behind.

As these teachings are relevant in our lives, they are also relevant in the way we build our shul community and do our shul business. When we wrote our Strategic Plan five years ago, we sought to personalize the impenetrable monolith which Anshe Emet appeared to be. We sought to break down walls, be more welcoming and better engage our community. We brought Shabbat service attendees together each week for lunch. We sought to build new bonds with Bernard Zell Anshe Emet Day School in order to enable both institutions to thrive in collaboration. Our board operates in a trusting, friendly, mutually supportive manner. Week after week, we have events, speakers, social opportunities to build bonds, learn together and make friends.

To build a community, we need to leave the baggage behind. We need to leave preconceived notions behind. We have built a beautiful spiritual and personal base. Whether it is a new plateau of spiritual goodness or one of educational excellence or one of social engagement, we have only upside. Thank you for your support. Let’s keep building something special together.

CARING FOR THE STRANGERS

Every year at the seder, we drink four cups of wine and recount the story of our people's exodus from Egypt. We experience our people's journey from slavery to freedom; we eat the symbolic foods of bitterness and suffering; and we recline in order to celebrate that we are now free people. The Haggadah instructs us to point to the matzah, the bread of affliction. And, we are commanded to recall that experience in our daily interactions with people. Over and over again, the Torah commands us to care for the stranger, for we were strangers in the land of Egypt.

One year ago, we reached out to our community to come together and support refugee resettlement in partnership with HIAS Chicago. Our community responded - with donations and volunteers. As federal policy slowed the entry of refugees, and as the State Department closed HIAS Chicago's refugee resettlement program, Refugee One invited us to partner with them at HIAS Chicago's suggestion.

On February 14, our community welcomed a Rohingya Burmese family. Volunteers spent hours grocery shopping, moving furniture, setting up the apartment; doing everything to make sure the family could enter a new home that was fully set up and stocked. I want to give all of these volunteers our deepest gratitude. It was so moving to witness the dozens of people who wanted to ensure that the family was embraced in Chicago.

We are continuing our efforts to ensure their comfort and success. If you would like more information, please be in touch with Melissa Sterne at melissasterne@yahoo.com.

This Pesach, when we remember what happened to our ancestors in Egypt, may we feel a call to support those who are treated as strangers in our world today. Wishing you and yours a happy and meaningful Pesach.

ENDING THE SILENCE ON MENTAL ILLNESS

“Silence encourages the tormentor, never the tormented” (Elie Weisel)

Too often, the Jewish community chooses to remain silent when it comes to mental illness. And as Weisel teaches, silence only makes the life of the tormented more anguished. This month, the Jewish community is choosing to end the silence.

Led by Jewish Child and Family Services, a collaboration of 5 synagogues in the Lakeview/Edgewater neighborhood (Anshe Emet Synagogue, Temple Sholom, Anshe Sholom B’nai Israel, Mishkan, and Congregation Emanuel) will be marking a weekend of Mental Health Awareness called, “Out of the Darkness ... Into the Light.” In combination with our Sisterhood Shabbat, from March 9-11, there will be opportunities to hear from experts, community members, and self advocates about mental illness and mental health. By sharing openly about the authentic experiences which so many of our community members share, we choose to combat the stigma and shame which, too often, prevent folks from seeking the support and love which might help them traverse difficult times.

In my time serving the Anshe Emet community, I have encountered many families affected by mental illness. And yet, so often, when people are suffering the most, they are painfully alone. I vividly remember when one family member said to me, “I almost wish he had cancer, because then I wouldn’t be so alone, then I could turn to the community.” The anguish of those words still stings.

The programs over the weekend are our hope for creating a different reality: a community in which we can share about mental health and mental illness openly, a community in which we can let go of shame and hold each other up with love and support. This is a community wide effort, so please attend any or all of the programs that are being hosted by our partner congregations.

Anshe Emet is honored to welcome Rabbi Mychal Springer for the weekend. The Jewish Theological Seminary is generously sponsoring Rabbi Springer’s time as a scholar-in-residence in our community. Rabbi Springer founded the Center for Pastoral Education at JTS in 2009, establishing relationships with hospices, Jewish social service agencies, and—most recently—prisons and reentry facilities. She began her career as a chaplain in New York City’s top hospitals, and in the 1990s became the director of the Department of Pastoral Care and Education at Beth Israel Medical Center. Mychal returned to JTS in 2002 as The Rabbinical School’s associate dean and director of Field Education. The first Conservative rabbi to be certified as a supervisor by the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education (ACPE), Mychal has built a program that uniquely equips graduates to meet the spiritual needs of all the people they serve. She holds the Helen Fried Kirshblum Goldstein Chair in Professional and Pastoral Skills at JTS and oversees the Certificate in Pastoral Care & Counseling. Rabbi Springer has so much wisdom to share with us on this special weekend.

Here are some of the weekend highlights throughout the community:

- Wednesday, March 7, 6:15 - 8:30 p.m.: Teen Program & Dinner with the Response Center (Temple Sholom)
- Friday, March 9, 6:30 p.m.: Miriam Ament of “No Shame on U” (Mishkan Chicago @ 2nd Unitarian Church)
- Saturday, March 10, 1:15 p.m.: Rabbi Mychal Springer “The Promise of a New Heart and a New Spirit” (Anshe Emet)
- Saturday, March 10, 1:15 p.m.: Rabbi Mychal Springer “Prayer as a Resource for Wellbeing” (Anshe Emet)
- Saturday March 10, 4:35 p.m.: Rabbi David Rosenberg “Seeking the Good in Others and in Ourselves” (Anshe Sholom B’nai Israel)
- Sunday March 11, 10:15 a.m.: Rabbi Mychal Springer “How Do I Know if Something’s Wrong? Cultivating Empathic Listening” (Congregation Emanuel)

May this week, and this month, be a time for healing for our community. May we combat shame, and replace it with love. May we release judgement, and instead choose unconditional support. If we work together, we can choose to make it so.

Rabbi D’ror Chankin-Gould

This Passover, make this a discussion topic around your table. Consider the consequences for a people who had given up hope, so resigned to their reality that they forgot how to sigh. Go around the table and ask each person to name something that is in desperate need of change in this country. Rather than allowing the discussion to devolve into all of the reasons that things will never change, let us consider the people who are impacted and think together of the steps necessary to create a different reality. Let us listen to each other and consider our own self-imposed chains. Let us discuss a next step that would allow us to embrace our own destiny as a nation and not wait for some miracle, or just hope that the next school massacre will not affect any of your loved ones. May we fulfill the promise of Passover in our time so that our nation will never again sigh in the face of such a tragedy, feeling powerless; and no parent will ever again have to cry at the loss of a child murdered at school.

Passover: From Darkness to Great Light

Li-hach I'faer ... I varech ... Mi she ... Hotzi-anu me'udat l'cherut, mi-yagon l'simchah, u-me'evet I'yam tov ... afela l'or gadol ...”

Therefore we are in duty bound to give thanks ... to bless ... God Who brought us forth from slavery to freedom, from sorrow to rejoicing, from mourning to festivity, (and) from darkness to great light (Mishnah Pesachim 10:5).

With these words, written in the context of the second century Roman exile, the rabbis both instruct and inspire the Jews of their time and of the centuries to come. As God redeemed the Israelites through the first Passover, bringing them “from darkness to great light,” so God will in every time restore the Jews to their heritage through their Passover celebrations. These words from the Mishnah were a message of hope to those second century Jews who had lost their Temple and, with it, their independent national and religious existence. Through their engagement with the rituals of Passover, they could re-experience the passage from slavery to freedom in their own troubled times. Similarly, we are commanded to participate in the seder, re-experiencing the great event it commemorates and making it our own.

But how do we make the events of a far-off time and place our own? The rabbis tell us how: by engaging in a series of ritual actions that recreate the correct emotional flow, the particular set of emotions that can connect us to our history, that can make past moments into present ones and present moments replications of past ones.

Preparing for Passover

CLEAN, CLEAN, CLEAN! Passover doesn’t begin with the seder, and if you think it does, you’ve missed half the experience! Clean your house! If you don’t keep kosher yet, consider starting with Passover. The traditional reason for this complete makeover of the home, and in particular, the kitchen, is to rid the house of hametz (leavened material). Also, Passover is the time of renewal and rebirth. What better way to experience renewal than by sweeping out the old and bringing in the new? And Passover is the time of redemption - the way to prepare for redemption is with symbolic purification. For the children of Israel, their wilderness experience acted as a mikveh (ritual bath), purifying them for entry into the Land. On the borders of the Land, under the leadership of Joshua, they were circumcised and observed the Passover. Similarly, we renew and purify ourselves and our environment through the common act of housecleaning.

Kashrut

The Bible prohibits the eating of Chametz during the festival of Passover (Exodus 12:15-20). The word Chametz is translated as “leavened bread.” Basically it refers to food prepared from five species of grain-wheat, barley, oats, spelt and rye-that has been allowed to leaven. Some common examples of Chametz are leavened breads, biscuits, crackers, cereals, and all liquids that contain ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol. To this, Ashkenazi rabbis added a further category called Kitniyot, which would include rice, millet, corn and legumes and any derivative products such as corn oil and mustard. On the issue of Kitniyot, Sephardic, Yemenite and Oriental Jewish custom varies from one community to another. In 2016, the Conservative movement approved a legal decision regarding the permissibility of Kitniyot during the holiday. You can find the entire position at the following link: http://tinyurl.com/PermissibilityofKitniyot. Please note that that Kitniyot, though traditionally prohibited by Ashkenazim, are not chametz. Accordingly, Kitniyot have no effect on the Kashrut of the dishes, pots or utensil with which it comes into contact.

Permitted foods (these require no Kosher L'Paschal label but must be in unopened packages or containers) include natural coffee, sugar, tea, salt, pepper, fresh fruits, nuts (not peanuts), eggs, fresh fish, and vegetables (except for peas and beans for Ashkenazim). Or, if certified Kosher L'Paschal by rabbinical authority: matzah, matzah flour, Passover noodles, candies, cakes, beverages, canned and processed foods, jam, cheese, jellies, relishes, condiments, margarine, dried fruits and vegetables, salad oils, vegetable gelatin, shortenings, vinegar, wines and liquors. Cottage and cream cheese and sour cream must have certification. It is recommended that you purchase enough pure milk and butter before Passover to last throughout the holiday.

Dishes and Utensils

Only dishes and utensils specially reserved for Passover should be used, with the following exceptions: silverware, knives, forks, and spoons made wholly of one piece of metal. If used during the year, they may be used on Passover if thorougly scoured and immersed in boiling water. All table glassware is permitted after thorough scouring and soaking. Fine translucent chinaware, if not used for a year, is permitted. Metal pots and pans used for cooking purposes only (but not for baking) if made wholly of one piece of metal, although used during the year, may be used on Passover if first thoroughly scoured and immersed in boiling water. Utensils used for baking during the year should not be used during Passover. Earthenware, enamelware, and porcelain utensils used during the year may not be used on Passover.

Preparing the Kitchen

The stove is prepared for Passover by thoroughly scrubbing and cleansing all parts and turning on full flame for 1/2 hour in bake oven and all grates. A dishwashing machine may be used for Passover after thorough scouring with boiling water and with a new tray; however, a metal tray may be used since it will be kashered in this process. Leave the dishwasher for 24 hours, then run it through a day’s worth of cycles. A microwave oven may be used after thorough cleaning and boiling water in it.

Tzedakah

Give tzedakah before any religious act, including before Shabbat and holidays or attending the synagogue. Giving tzedakah for Passover emphasizes the communal nature of being Jewish -- we are obligated to see that all Jews have the opportunity to share in this great communal observance. The form tzedakah takes for Passover at Anshe Emet Synagogue is contributions to the Ma’ot Hittim Fund. Make this contribution a family project, and make it concrete and visible for young children.

Bedikat Chametz

Jewish mystics linked removal of hametz to purification from sin. Bedikat Hametz (pre-Passover symbolic search for any remaining hametz) is performed with total concentration and seriousness of purpose. The found hametz must be burned the next morning.
Selling of Chametz

The eating, use, or possession of chametz during Passover is strictly forbidden. Chametz that is not disposed of before Passover may not be used after the holiday. Chametz that has not been destroyed, is locked away and its ownership transferred from us through contractual sale to non-Jews and bought back from them after Passover. You may designate Rabbi Siegel as your agent for the sale of your chametz no later than March 30. Leading a Seder

Go to your local Jewish book store, browse through the Haggadot, and select one that satisfies you personally. Copies for everyone at your seder represent a significant investment, so you may want to experiment before you make that major decision. We recommend:

A Different Night (Shalom Hartman Institute) as it contains a wealth of interactive material.

The Feast of Freedom (The Rabbinical Assembly). Please note that The Feast of Freedom has excellent commentaries but few transliterations. If children will be present at your seder, select an appropriate children’s Haggadah. Plan other Passover related activities to entertain them during the longer segments.

This year consider the following Sefardic custom: The leader of the seder dresses up as if she/he is going on a journey with a hat, coat, and knapsack or suitcase. This will definitely make the children curious as to where we are going. The seder leader then explains that we are journeying out of Egypt. You also might want to serve a snack so that everyone can enjoy the seder without the hunger pains.

Read through the Haggadah in advance and make strategic decisions about what to include and what not to, based on the composition of the group. A Different Night Haggadah offers what they call a “Bare Bones Basic Seder.” It is a good model for anyone beginning to learn how to conduct a Seder.

It is important to spend a few moments planning how readings will be assigned. Participation should not be limited to letting everyone read a different paragraph in turn. You may photo-copy a section of the Haggadah with easily understandable commentary and send it to a participant of your Seder so that they might prepare. We would encourage the leader to delegate responsibilities in the seder based upon strengths and sensibilities. For example, ask someone with good Hebrew to do the Kiddush, another with a psychology background to present the Four Children, a drama person to act out the ten plagues and someone with musical ability to help lead the singing.

The Haggadah indicates the places for traditional chants/songs, and you can bring in non-traditional songs that are connected thematically to a reading. American folk songs and modern Israeli tunes can be added to traditional seder songs to enrich the singing and the fellowship of the meal. It matters little if the seder is conducted in English or Hebrew. What is truly important is that the seder be meaningful and fun!
Dear Friends,

We have had a busy month full of learning and growing together. Our faculty is busy providing the students with innovative and exciting curriculum that is helping to shape our students as the year moves along. We are always happy when we are joined by our families to participate in our collective learning.

Happy to share some of the happenings of the Joseph and Belle Braun Religious school. So much to look forward to as we enter in to the final weeks of this school year!

SISTERHOOD SHABBAT

Please join us on March 10, 2018 for the Anshe Emet Sisterhood Shabbat!

This service, conducted by the women of our congregation has become a highlight of the Sisterhood. It is always a very meaningful experience and we would encourage your participation. As in previous years, the Sisterhood service will be held in both the Main Sanctuary and the Rose Crown Minyan.

This year, we will be joined by Rabbi Mychal Springer, the director of the Center for Pastoral Education at the Jewish Theological Seminary. Rabbi Springer will be giving the D’var Torah and will be speaking about Lev Hashad v’Raham Hasha: The Promise of a New Heart and a New Spirit. Rabbi Springer will also be the speaker for the Sisterhood Post-Kiddush Learning session and will be speaking on Prayer as a Resource for Well-being. In this session, we will explore the ways that prayer - traditional and extemporaneous - can support well-being.

Sisterhood Shabbat is truly a time when the women of Anshe Emet come together. There are still a few opportunities to participate if you haven’t already signed up to be involved in the service. Over the years, we have formed groups of women for the Aliyot: from recent bat mitzvah young women to first timers on the Bimah to those that have previously had the honor to bless the Torah! If you would like to be a part of a group Aliyah, please email me at mreiddpm@gmail.com.

Finally, the Kiddush that is served following the Sisterhood Shabbat is prepared entirely by the women of our community. With the hard work and planning of Janet Siegel and Benita Kapnick-Cohen, a wonderful menu has been developed and there are volunteer opportunities to help with the cooking and preparation! Please email Benita at rcohendpm@aol.com to sign up for a time slot for an afternoon or evening of cooking fun on Sunday 3/4, Tuesday 3/6, Wednesday 3/7 or Thursday 3/8.

Many thanks to Larisa Kenen who has been organizing this Monday Night Mah Jongg. If you are interested in coordinating the Sisterhood’s Mah Jongg program, please contact Helene Greenwald at hgreenwa@gmail.com. For information about Monday Night Mah Jongg email Helene Greenwald at hgreenwa@gmail.com.

Help Anshe Emet keep in touch with your student while away at school. We mail meaningful, interesting and fun reminders of Jewish traditions several times per academic year. Send your name, your student’s name, full college mailing address and email to aecollegeconnection@gmail.com. It’s never too late to sign up a student for the next package. We compile a new list each school year so previous participants need to resubmit their contact information.

BOOK CLUB

The Bridge Sisterhood scheduled three sessions for the first half of 2018. On February 1 we discussed George Saunders’ Man Booker prize winner, Lincoln in the Bardo. We welcome new members and will prorate the fee for anyone interested in joining us for our next discussions.

Thursday, April 12: A Horse Walked into a Bar, David Grossman. The award-winning and internationally acclaimed author of the To the End of the Land now gives us a searing short novel about the life of a stand-up comic, as revealed in the course of one evening’s performance. In the dance between comic and audience, with barbs flying back and forth, a deeper story begins to take shape—one that will alter the lives of many of those in attendance.

Thursday, June 7: The Leavers: A Novel, Lisa Ko. On one hand, The Leavers, by Lisa Ko is a very specific story, or rather stories. There are two narrators, Polly Guo, who, pregnant, leaves her province in China to try to make a new life in the United States, and Deming Guo, her son. It is the story of trying to make a living as an undocumented worker and the story of growing up in the United States. It is the story of hope and a particular immigrant family whose members do the best they can to make their way.

AWARD-WINNING MEN’S CLUB MENSCHEN/MENTION

We have been very pleased with the response to our 2018 lineup of events thus far, and we are confident that your interest and excitement with Men's Club will continue to grow with us. Our program on January 16, a special presentation by fellow congregant and best-selling author, Jonathan Eig, was a huge success. Jonathan discussed his new book, “Ali: A Life” with 60 Men’s Club members and friends. He shared many fascinating and intimate little known facts about Ali’s flamboyant life, and he signed copies of the book for many of our attendees.

On February 4 at 8:00 a.m., Men’s Club once again hosted our annual World Wide Wrap. Rabbi Siegel provided a history of tefillin and instruction on how to properly put them on. This was followed by our regular morning minyan and, of course, a light breakfast, compliments of Men’s Club. Each year World Wide Wrap also provides two special opportunities. First, you may purchase tefillin at a substantially discounted price due to the partial subsidy provided by your Men’s Club. You still may contact Naomi Weiss in regard to purchasing tefillin at the discounted price. Second, when you put on tefillin on this day you will be engaging in this mitzvah with Men’s Clubs all over the world that also are doing so.

On February 6, Men’s Club members and friends learned about another sports figure. Brent Novoselsky—a nice local Jewish guy who grew up in Skokie—provided a riveting and frank insider view of his 7-year career in the NFL and what it is like to play professional football. Proceeds from this event were donated to the B’nai B’rith Sports Lodge High School Athletes Scholarship Fund. This fund has provided scholarships to local high school athletes on their way to college for over 40 years. If you have or know of high school athletes who would like to apply, then send me an email at mensclub@ansheemet.org, and I will forward your contact information on to the scholarship committee.

PASSOVER WINE TASTING

March means Passover this year, and it would not be the same without attending our annual Men’s Club Passover Wine Tasting and wine-ordering evening at Binny’s Lincoln Park. This unique opportunity will be held at 6:30 p.m. on March 6. This is your chance to learn about, taste, and order from a wide selection of quality kosher for Passover wines. Watch for registration details.

MAN AND YOUTH OF THE YEAR

The Federation of Jewish Men’s Clubs Midwest Region will be holding its annual Man and Youth of the Year event at Congregation Beth Shalom in Northbrook at 4:30 p.m. on March 11. I am very pleased to announce that I have been selected by our Men’s Club Board as our Anshe Emet Men’s Club Man of the Year. Michael Rubin, Regional President of Chicagoland USY, will be sharing in the honors as our Youth of the Year. The cost for the awards dinner is $36 if registered by February 28 or $45 if registered after February 28. You may share in the festivities and register at: midwestregionfjmc.myshopify.com/products/register-for-man-youth-of-the-year-event-chicago

It’s been a busy start of the year for Na’aseh! Some highlights include:

• We teamed up with YAD to volunteer at the ARK food pantry and learn about poverty from ARK educator and AES member, Rebecca Fletcher. The ARK’s mission is to help Chicagoland Jews who are facing adversity navigate toward self-reliance.

• We had a training from the experienced organizers at ONE Northside, where we learned about tools to create change and explored how our life experiences shaped our values.

• We announced a new partnership with RefugeeOne to support a refugee family. As the largest resettlement agency in Illinois, RefugeeOne has welcomed more than 17,500 refugees since 1982. Our responsibilities as a congregational partner include financial support, meeting the family at the airport, cooking their first meal, stocking their pantry, moving furniture and setting up the apartment, and supporting them with mentors and tutors.

And coming up in March, we will be delivering Passover Food packages as part of the bi-annual Maot Chitim delivery day. Join us the morning of March 25 to participate in this mitzvah!

To sign-up for either supporting the refugee family or delivering food for Maot Chitim, email us at naaseh.ansheemet@gmail.com.

Parenting Programs

“Parenting is a Journey, Don’t Take it Alone” is the theme that runs through the programming JCFS offers for parents. Travelers always take certain things with them – smart phones, identification, fuel, food, directions - so that their trips can be smooth. What crucial items do parents need to have on their journeys? The concepts below can be helpful for all parents regardless of the age of their children or the issue at hand.

• Parents are in charge and they can best reinforce this by setting firm Boundaries. Their job is to teach kids which means they can’t always be friends with them. Parents and kids are separate, each with their own strengths, weaknesses and journeys.

• The goal is to raise Competent, Resilient Kids. With a constant eye on that end goal, parents need to encourage independence and respect for authority while allowing for failure. This means allowing kids to be “good enough” instead of pushing them to be “the best.”

• Good Enough Parenting requires self-awareness, self-care and self-compassion. Kids learn from watching their parents’ behaviors including how they handle stress and inevitable mistakes.

• Everyone needs to be heard which is why Listening Skills are so important. Kids need to share their experiences and know they have a safe place to go as they figure out what to do themselves (rather than being told what to do).

• Kids develop certain capacities at different ages. Understanding Normal Development can save parents from being furious at their kids for developmentally typical behavior (i.e. the self-absorbed middle school years).

These concepts will be integrated through the upcoming JCFS parent program: “Let’s Talk about Boys, Sexuality and Consent in the Internet and #MeToo Age”.

• Parents need to be familiar with the amount of sexual material [including pornography] that kids are exposed to on the internet while still in grade school. If parents want to be their kids’ “go to” about sexuality, they need to set Boundaries by talking about the impact and risks associated with watching pornography.

• Raising Competent, Resilient Kids means acknowledging they will see sexual content online and helping them think about the negative messages pornography conveys.

• Parents may sometimes behave in ways that are not respectful of others. Good Enough parents are able to recognize how their behavior was hurtful, apologize and behave differently going forward.

• Kids need to talk about their experiences. Parents are at their best when they employ good Listening Skills – when they listen without jumping in to lecture, frighten, or correct.

• When Normal Development hasn’t yet allowed a teen to think forward to the potential outcome/consequence of their behavior, it is the responsibility of the adults around them to create the barriers to keep them safe. This would include software to block inappropriate material as pop-ups and being aware of what kids are seeing on screens.

Each parenting issue will have different levels of emphasis on the different concepts, but like all maps, having all of the components handy will certainly ease the way. JCFS is pleased to offer a variety of programs to help parents in different stages of their parenting journey [www.jcfs.org]. For more information or to discuss any of this further, please contact our Anshe Emet JCFS liaison Ann Luban at AnnLuban@jcfs.org or at 847-745-5420.

Anshe Emet Confidential Assistance Program designed to help members through tough financial times

If you are an Anshe Emet member experiencing financial hardship, we may be able to be of assistance to you during these difficult times. There are numerous community resources to which we can direct you, as well as some available funds here at Anshe Emet to help congregants in need.

If you are a congregant needing assistance with:

- Food
- Shelter (rent, utilities)
- Emergency medical expenses
- Jewish day school tuition
- Summer Camp fees
- Study in Israel or Jewish educational program expenses

Please contact the Assistance Program Coordinator directly at assistance@AnsheEmet.org or at 773-868-5133 for further information.

Please note that all inquiries and any information exchange will be completely confidential.

Look for a link to a downloadable application form at http://www.ansheemet.org/Confidential_Financial_Assistance.

Whether you are celebrating a special occasion like a new baby, a wedding engagement, anniversary, birthday or commemorating the loss of a loved one for Yahrzeit—share your life cycle events with the congregation by making a gift to the Kiddush Luncheon Fund.

Contact Kim Carter for details at kcarter@ansheemet.org or at 773-868-5119. Any gift amount is welcome; sponsorships of $500 or more will be specially acknowledged in the weekly Shabbat bulletin.
