Parsha Summaries

Vayikra • He Called

Leviticus 1:1 - 5:26

The book of Leviticus is the pinnacle book of the Torah. Located in the very center of the other five, it exemplifies the distinctive fusion of ritual and ethics that has always been the way of the Torah. At the center of this central book comes chapter 19 with the Holiness Code, a summary of the entire ethos and norms of a Jewish way of life. Before and after this pivotal section, Leviticus concerns itself with the regulations of the priesthood, the proper performance of the sacrifices, atonement, and righteous living. Each of these facets gives expression to the covenant linking God and the people Israel.

The book begins with three chapters, each of which details the main types of sacrifices that individuals offer. The Olah, the burnt offering, provides a “pleasing odor for God.” The Minha, the grain offering, must be without leaven. The fat and blood of the Shelamim, peace or whole offerings, cannot be consumed. These sacrifices serve many different purposes, communal and individual, required and optional.

Chapters 4 and 5 highlight a different kind of offering: the Hattat, sin offering. The Hattat is for the unintentional commission of a prohibited act by a Kohen, the community, the head of the community, or an individual. It is also the necessary ritual response for withholding testimony, touching something tamei (ritually impure), touching human tumah (ritual impurity), or failure to fulfill an oath.

Finally, the Asham, guilt offering, is for robbery or fraud, for me'ilah (the misappropriation of Temple property), and for the unintentional violations of prohibitions.

Help Us Be There For You

Synagogue is a place where you want to feel at home, nourished, nurtured and spiritually fulfilled; a place where your soul, heart and head are touched. It is a place where you and your children feel a sense of relevance. It is a place where you are safe, where you are stimulated, and where you will find a welcoming community.

As part of this commitment, the clergy at Anshe Emet are here to help with Simchas and crises in your or your family's life. If you know someone who needs to speak with a member of our clergy, or if you want to add a name to the Mi Sheberach list, please contact Antoinette (Toni) Nuñez at 773-868-5120 or anunez@ansheemet.org. Names will be kept on the Mi Sheberach list for two weeks only unless otherwise specified.

Siman Tov U'Mazel Tov

Mazel Tov to proud grandparents, Elaine and Barry Seeskin along with their family, Zach, Lindsey and Ari Seeskin on the newest addition to their family. Daughters, Abby Seeskin and Rachel Stebing welcomed a son, Ansel Dov yesterday morning, March 19th weighing in at 8 lbs; 9 oz. and 21 in. long.

Mazel Tov to Alexis Braverman and Charlie Gandelman, to the proud grandparents Rona Pietrzak and Amiel Braverman (z'l) and Nancy and Alan Gandelman and the many aunts, uncles and cousins on the newest addition to their family! Aviva Raye Gandelman was born on Saturday, March 14th at 5:46 am and weighed in at 6 lbs., 12 oz. and 19 inches long.

The Anshe Emet community extends its heartiest congratulations to these families, and a warm welcome to their newborns! May they grow up to attain Torah, Chuppah and Good Deeds! Amen.

Condolences

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Marlene K. Weil (nee Kravitz), age 85, born May 13, 1934, in Albany Park, Chicago. Marlene is survived by her beloved husband Reynold of 63 years who lives in Boynton Beach, FL. Loving mother of her 3 children David Weil (Naomi Weiss-Weil), Linda Weil (Steve Silk), and Randie Weil-Leprince (Guy Leprince), grandmother to Matthew Weil, Andrew Weil, Evan Weil and Gabriel Silk, great grandmother to Noah Weil. She developed a large and loving family of cousins, nieces, nephews and a rich community of friends.

The Anshe Emet community extends its deepest condolences to the family during this difficult time. May you be comforted among the mourners in Zion and Jerusalem. Amen.

ON-LINE CLASS: BLESSING EACH OTHER ACROSS DISTANCES WITH CANTOR REBECCA JOY FLETCHER
TUESDAYS, MARCH 31 & APRIL 7 & 14 • 12PM-1:30pm

At this time when most of us are home-bound, and many of us are physically isolated from folks we love, we would do well to cultivate our capacity to bless each other spontaneously. The goal of this class is to mine our tradition in order to help folks cultivate a greater sense of connection to and compassion for each other, as well as the inner sense that others are blessing you too — that we exist in a constant web of blessings, known and unknown, voiced and unvoiced, even when we are physically far apart. It is the least we can do for each other.

PASSOVER WITH ANSHE EMET

Monday, March 30

How is This Passover Different from All Other Passover? • 7pm

(Formerly Passover in the Time of a Pandemic)

Passover is going to be very different for all of us this year. Some of us will be celebrating by ourselves. Others will be with a small number of family, but will have to lead the seder for the first time. All of us are figuring out – how can we make Passover meaningful, relevant, and celebratory. Join Rabbis Siegel, Chankin-Gould, and Russo, as they offer tips on how to lead a seder, online Passover resources, guidance on how to connect with family remotely, and Jewish legal advice on how to celebrate the holiday given the world we are living in today.
