Next year together

WHY IS THIS NIGHT DIFFERENT THAN ANY OTHER NIGHT?

This Passover, that question is not hard to answer—this year's Seders will be heavy with the presence of absence. To create a sense of togetherness, at 8 p.m. tonight—wherever you are in your Seder—the community is invited to join one another by opening your door, stepping outside and reading the following prayer for and to our community:

GOD OF OUR ANCESTORS, whose delivery of us from slavery we remember tonight, we turn to You again in a new time of suffering. We again ask You to help those who need you now more than ever. We pray that You give health, vitality, and strength to the victims of COVID-19 and to the doctors and nurses, and all who care for the sick, and to all those in our country, states, cities, and neighborhoods who are tirelessly working to maintain our communities and to serve all Americans. Together, let us say, AMEN.

Next year in health.
Next year together.
Next year in Jerusalem.

Wishing you a wonderful, healthy Passover celebration with loved ones—whether virtual or in person.
