

Eikev: Shabbat Triennial year 1

[Deuteronomy]

(7)12: It shall happen, because you listen to these laws, and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the lovingkindness which He swore to your fathers: 13: and He will love you, and bless you, and multiply you;

He will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your wine and your oil, the offspring of your cattle and the strength of your flock, in the land which He swore to your fathers to give you. 14: You shall be blessed above all peoples:

there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

15: The LORD will take away from you all sickness; and of all the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, will He put none on you, but will lay them on all your enemies.

16: You shall consume all the peoples whom the LORD your God shall deliver to you;

your eye shall not pity them: neither shall you serve their gods;

for that will be a snare to you. 17: If you shall say in your heart,

These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

18: you shall not be afraid of them: you shall well remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt;

19: the great trials which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, whereby the LORD your God brought you out:

so shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. 20: Moreover the hornet will the LORD your God send among them, until those who are left, and hide themselves, perish from before you.

21: You shall not be scared of them; for the LORD your God is in the midst of you, a great and awesome Almighty. 22: The LORD your God will cast out those nations before you little by little: you may not consume them at once, lest the animals of the field multiply against you.

23: But the LORD your God will deliver them up before you, and will confuse them with a great confusion, until they be destroyed.

24: He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall make their name to perish from under the sky: there shall no man be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them.

25: The engraved images of their gods shall you burn with fire: you shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it to you, lest you be snared therein; for it is an abomination to the LORD your God.

26: You shall not bring an abomination into your house, and become a devoted thing like it: you shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a devoted thing.

(8)1: All the commandments which I command you this day shall you observe to do, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers. 2: You shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, to test you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments, or not. 3: He humbled you, and allowed you to hunger, and fed you with manna, which you didn't know, neither did your fathers know;

so as to make you know that man does not live by bread only, but by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD does man live. 4: Your clothing didn't grow old on you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years.

5: You shall consider in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you. 6: You shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to fear Him. 7: For the LORD your God brings you into a good land, a land of streams of water, of springs and brooks, flowing forth in valleys and hills; 8: a land of wheat and barley, and vines and fig-trees and pomegranates; a land of oil-giving olives and honey;

9: a land in which you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper.

10: You shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you. 11: Beware lest you forget the LORD your God, in not keeping His commandments, and His laws, and His statutes, which I command you this day: 12: lest when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses, and lived therein; 13: and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold be multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied;

14: then your heart be lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; 15: who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, [in which were] snakes, serpents and scorpions, and a thirst where was no water;

who brought you forth water out of the rock of flint;

so as to humble you, and so as to test you, to do you good at your latter end:

17: and lest you say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth.

18: But you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth; so as to establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as at this day.

19: It shall be, if you shall forget the LORD your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them,

I warn you this day that you shall surely perish. 20: As the nations that the LORD makes to perish before you, so shall you perish; because you wouldn't listen to the voice of the LORD your God.

(9)1: Hear, Yisrael: you are to pass over the Yarden this day, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to the sky,

2: a people great and tall, the sons of Anak, whom you know, and of whom you have heard say,

Who can stand before the sons of Anak?

3: Know therefore this day, that it is the LORD your God who goes over before you as a devouring fire;

He will destroy them, and He will bring them down before you:

so shall you drive them out, and make them to perish quickly, as the LORD has spoken to you.

לְךָ:

22: For if you shall diligently keep all this commandment which I command you, to do it, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to cleave to Him; 23: then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. 24: Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness, and the Levanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the latter sea shall be your border. 25: There shall no man be able to stand before you: the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you on all the land that you shall tread on,

as He has spoken to you.
