IMPORTANT NOTICE: COVID VACCINE RESOURCES

SELLING OF CHAMETZ
The eating, use, or possession of chametz during Pesach is strictly forbidden. Chametz that is not disposed of before Pesach may not be used after the holiday. Such chametz, which has not been destroyed, is locked away and its ownership transferred from us through contractual sale to non-Jews and bought back from them after Passover. You may designate Rabbi Siegel as your agent for the sale of your chametz no later than Wednesday, March 24 at 6PM. Click here to fill out our online form.

The book of Leviticus is the pinnacle book of the Torah. Located in the very center of the other five, it exemplifies the distinctive fusion of ritual and ethics that has always been the way of the Torah. At the center of this central book comes chapter 19 with the Holiness Code, a summary of the entire ethos and norms of a Jewish way of life. Before and after this pivotal section, Leviticus concerns itself with the regulations of the priesthood, the proper performance of the sacrifices, atonement, and righteous living. Each of these facets gives expression to the covenant linking God and the people Israel.

The book begins with three chapters, each of which details the main types of sacrifices that individuals offer. The Olah, the burnt offering, provides a “pleasing odor for God.” The Minha, the grain offering, must be without leaven. The fat and blood of the Shelamim, peace or whole offerings, cannot be consumed. These sacrifices serve many different purposes, communal and individual, required and optional.

Chapters 4 and 5 highlight a different kind of offering: the Hattat, sin offering. The Hattat is for the unintentional commission of a prohibited act by a Kohen, the community, the head of the community, or an individual. It is also the necessary ritual response for withholding testimony, touching something tamei (ritually impure), touching human tumah (ritual impurity), or failure to fulfill an oath.

Finally, the Asham, guilt offering, is for robbery or fraud, for me’ilah (the misappropriation of Temple property), and for the unintentional violations of prohibitions.
Help Us Be There For You

Synagogue is a place where you want to feel at home, nourished, nurtured and spiritually fulfilled; a place where your soul, heart and head are touched. It is a place where you and your children feel a sense of relevance. It is a place where you are safe, where you are stimulated, and where you will find a welcoming community.

As part of this commitment, the clergy at Anshe Emet are here to help with Simchas and crises in your or your family’s life. If you know someone who needs to speak with a member of our clergy, or if you want to add a name to the Mi Sheberach list, please contact Antoinette (Toni) Nuñez at 773-868-5120 or anunez@ansheemet.org. Names will be kept on the Mi Sheberach list for two weeks only unless otherwise specified.

Condolences

It is with deep regret to inform you of these recent passings:

Donald Lee Koller died at home in Rockville, MD, attended by his wife Carla and children David and Danielle. He is survived by Carla, their son David, daughter-in-law Debbie, daughter Danielle, husband Doug Davidoff, grandchildren Drew, wife Ashley, Samuel, Dylan, Elijah, Asher, along with sister Susan Van Horne, husband Will, sister Laura Koller, sister-in-law Jane Sherman, husband Kim.

Florence “Sue” Goldsmith, nee Marks, age 82, of Chicago, beloved wife, best friend, and confidant of the late David L. Goldsmith; loving mother of Rebecca Goldsmith, devoted daughter of the late Jacob and the late Miriam Marks; dear sister of David (Laurie) Marks and the late Sherwin Marks; fond sister-in-law of Marcy Goldsmith, Bob (Kathy) Goldsmith, Gordy (late Beth) Goldsmith, and Steve (Carol) Goldsmith.

The Anshe Emet community extends its deepest condolences to these families during this difficult time. May you all be comforted among the mourners in Zion and Jerusalem. Amen.

YOM HASHOAH PROGRAM:
LEAH’S JOURNEY: A STORY OF RESILIENCE, RESISTANCE AND SURVIVAL
PRESENTED BY DORIS LAZARUS, 2ND GENERATION SPEAKER
THURSDAY, APRIL 8 AT 7PM
LEAH MOSAK survived the ghetto, 2 1/2 years in the death camp of Auschwitz-Birkenau, the death march, and 2 additional camps. She fought to see better days, rebuilding a life in spite of unimaginable trauma and profound sadness. Her strength and courage were just a part of her many inspiring qualities. Leah's legacy lives on in her daughter Doris, son-in-law Ron, grandchildren Brad Lazarus and Anshe Emet members Jennifer and son-in-law Matthew Seidner and great-grandchildren, Talia, Perla, Jonah, and Elijah Seidner.

DORIS LAZARUS has dedicated her life to Holocaust Education and Remembrance. She worked for Steven Spielberg’s Shoah Foundation from 1994-1998 and interviewed over 125 Holocaust Survivors from the Midwest. Doris is a founding member of both the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum and the Illinois Holocaust Museum. In 1998 she participated in the U.S. Museum’s first mission to Auschwitz. She has given many lectures on the Holocaust and has been a Docent at the Illinois Holocaust Museum for 12 years. She also is a certified speaker for the Museum’s 2nd Generation Speaker’s Bureau as well as a moderator for the Illinois Holocaust Museum’s Survivor Hologram Theater.

HAVDALAH
IN THE HOOD:
OMER EDITION!
During the days between Passover and Shavuot, we recite the daily counting of the Omer, which spiritually prepares us for the giving of the Torah on Shavuot. For the six Saturday evenings, we invite you to join us OUTSIDE for Havdalah and the counting of the Omer. Each week, it will be held at a different spot in the city so find the one closest to you and join us!
