

Mikeitz: Weekday

[Genesis]

(41)1: It happened at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river.

2: Behold, out of the river there came up seven cows, good to look at and fat-fleshed, and they fed in the reed-grass. 3: Behold, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, bad to look at and lean-fleshed, and stood by the other cows on the brink of the river.

4: The bad to look at and lean-fleshed cattle ate up the seven good to look at and fat cows.

So Pharaoh awoke.

5: He slept and dreamed a second time: and, behold, seven ears of grain came up on one stalk, rank and good.

6: Behold, seven ears, thin and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. 7: The thin ears swallowed up the seven rank and full ears.

Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream. 8: It happened in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all its wise men.

Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9: Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying,

"I remember my faults today. 10: Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, me and the chief baker. 11: We dreamed a dream in one night, I and he.

We dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. 12: There was with us there a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard, and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams.

To each man according to his dream he did interpret. 13: It happened, as he interpreted to us, so it was: me he restored to my office, and him he hanged.

14: Then Pharaoh sent and called Yoseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon.

He shaved himself, changed his clothing, and came in to Pharaoh.
