[Jeremiah]

(2)4:Hear you the word of the LORD, O house of Yaakov, and all the families of the house of Yisrael:

5:Thus says the LORD, What unrighteousness have your fathers found in Me, that they have gone far from Me, and have followed after vanity, and are become themselves vain? 6:Neither said they, Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no man lived?

7:I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat the fruit of it and the goodness of it; but when you entered, you defiled My land, and made My heritage an abomination.

8:The priests didn't say, Where is the LORD? and those who handle the Law didn't know Me: the rulers also transgressed against Me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9:Therefore I will yet contend with you, says the LORD, and with your children's children will I contend.

10:For pass over to the isles of Kittiyim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing.

11:Has a nation changed its gods, which yet are no gods? but My people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.

12:Be astonished, you heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be you very desolate, says the LORD.

13:For My people have committed two evils: they have forsaken Me, the spring of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14:Is Yisrael a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he become a prey?

15:The young lions have roared on him, and yelled; and they have made his land waste: his cities are burned up, without inhabitant.

16:The children also of Nof and Tachpanches have broken the crown of your head.

17:Haven't you procured this to yourself, in that you have forsaken the LORD your God, when He led you by the way?

18:Now what have you to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shichor? or what have you to do in the way to Ashur, to drink the waters of the River?

19:Your own wickedness shall discipline you, and your backsliding shall reprove you: know therefore and see that it is evil and bitter, that you have forsaken the LORD your God, and that My fear is not in you, says the Lord God of Hosts.

20:For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bonds; and you said, I will not transgress; but on every high hill and under every green tree you recline and go astray.

21:Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a true seed: how then are you turned to Me into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine?

22:For though you wash yourself with lye, and use you much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before Me, says the Lord God.

23:How can you say, I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Bealim? see your way in the valley, know what you have done: you are a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24:a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind in her desire; in her occasion who can turn her away? all those who seek her will not weary; in her month they shall find her.

25:Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst: but you said, It is in vain; no, for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

26:As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Yisrael ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets;

27:who say to wood, You are my father; and to stone, You have given birth to me: for they have turned their back to Me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise and save us.

28:But where are your gods that you have made yourself? let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble: for according to the number of your cities are your gods, Yehudah.

4:Will you not from this time call to Me, My Father, You are the guide of my youth?
