A Historic and Vibrant Community in the Lakeview Neighborhood of Chicago

Praise for Our Volunteers

Michael S. Siegel
Senior Rabbi
The Norman Asher Rabbinic Chair
msiegel@ansheemet.org

Summer is a time to breathe and reflect on the past year of 5782, as we prepare for the holidays and all that will be happening in our community in 5783. Last year was remarkable as our congregation emerged from COVID stronger, more creative, and vibrant. As I think of the past year, it is clear that so much of our success at Anshe Emet is due to those who give their time as volunteers. So, before we leave 5782, I want to take the time to say thank you to the volunteers who do so much for us.

We owe our gratitude to those who volunteered their time to:

- Deliver soup/challah through Ladles of Love to those affected by COVID or other illnesses as well as making hundreds of phone calls checking in with our seniors through our Caring Committee
- Usher on the High Holidays
- Serve on the Cantorial Search Committee

- Advise us on our Health and Safety Committee
- Feed the hungry by volunteering at Lakeview Pantry twice a month
- Visit the sick through our Bikkur Cholim Committee
- Help to lift up the voices of Jews of color on our Kolehnu committee
- Resettle refugee families and work for social justice on our Na'aseh Committee
- Create a strategic plan on our Kadimah Committee
- Work to set our synagogue up for future success on the Revenue Task Force
- Plan a remarkable installation for Cantor Brook on our Installation Committee
- Help us create a lower bimah on our Kehillah Kedosha Committee
- Lovingly prepare members of our community for burial through our Chevra Kadisha
- Create events for Men's Club and Sisterhood

- Deliver over 200 mishloach manot bags to our senior citizens
- Plan joyful celebrations for our community: Light & Latkes, Matzah Brei Bash, and the Purim Carnival
- Lead our congregation on our Board of Directors and our Executive Committee

The word for volunteerism in Hebrew is Hitnadvut. Like most words in the Hebrew language, it has Biblical antecedents. In the Bible, Hitnadvut connotes generosity, willingness, and even nobility. Certainly, the many who volunteer reflect the true meaning of the words and bestow a sense of nobility to our community. Let us take a moment to thank our Mitnadvim for all that they do to make Anshe Emet a true Kehillah Kedosha, a Holy Congregation.

The Gesher Program in memory of Linda J. Karno, z"l is designed for you. It strives to increase your knowledge and participation in the life of the synagogue, within the context of the services as well as in the community as a whole. The program also seeks to bridge the distance between Jewish life and learning, so whether one is a Jew by Choice or a Jew by Birth, Gesher offers something for everyone.

Read about some of our recent Gesher participants below:

THOMAS FRANSEN

"My journey towards Judaism began with noticing coincidences, followed by learning more, wrestling with the process, trying on the mitzvot, engaging with the clergy at Anshe Emet, and ultimately planting myself with the Jewish people and committing to the covenant. Gesher represents the logical next step in this journey, as Judaism is not just about words or faith - but action. I'm proud to be a member of the Jewish people, and a member of the Anshe Emet community."

TAYLOR MAURAND

"Choosing Judaism has been the most powerful and impactful decision of my life. In a time of great personal life changes, I needed a spiritual home and did not find it in the religion of my birth family; but in Judaism, I discovered a way to feel more fully myself. Thank you for being here to witness my Bat Mitzvah 13 years after my Beit Din and Mikveh ceremony, along with all of us in the Gesher class."

YANI COSMA

"For me this is a historical step that represents not only the fulfillment of a dream come true, but also the consummation of a promise made to my family (especially to my Bubbie) and a moral obligation to my ancestors. Reaching this important milestone - that marks a continuation of growth and not a graduation - has been a beautiful and magical journey that establishes the rite of passage to personal responsibility for religious, moral and spiritual behavior. Many thanks for this achievement to the wonderful clergy and to my friends from this congregation for embarking along on this remarkable journey."

The Gesher Program in memory of Linda J. Karno, z"l is a program that runs from January through August. The ability to read Hebrew is a prerequisite. The program culminates in a group B'nai Mitzvah, celebrated on Friday night and Shabbat morning. If you are interested, please contact Liz Berke, Hazzan Sheini, at eberke@ansheemet.org/773-868-5117 to learn more about the program and what it can offer you.

Celebrate with our Gesher students on the Shabbat of August 19th-20th!

The summer months bring a change of pace for all of us, and we hope you are able to enjoy a bit of calm during these warm months. For our Music Team, this is a time of reflection and planning as we prepare for the High Holy Days (yes, you read that right!) and envision the ways in which music can continue to be part of our communal life in the months to come. Summer is also a time of transition and we are thrilled to welcome a new addition to our Anshe Emet team. Beginning August 1st, Todd Kessler will be joining the team as our Music Educator. Todd is already a familiar presence to our community as a beloved leader of our High Holy Day Young Family services as well as a regular presence on Friday nights and Saturday mornings in the Sanctuary and with Youth and Young Family services. In addition to these services, Todd will be our new Religious School tefillah and song leader and we look forward to singing and praying with him in the months to come.

We look forward to sharing more exciting news about Jewish musical programs and performances starting this fall but in the meantime, we are here, our doors are always open to you, and we can't wait to see you in shul!

MR. TODD KESSLER

Todd Kessler grew up in Northbrook and now lives in Deerfield with his wife, Lauren, and their two sons, Benjamin and Ezra. Upon graduating from the University of Illinois in 2005 with a degree in Music Theory and Composition, Todd quickly began a career in music that has spanned 16 years and the release of multiple albums and tours around the country, including a spot on season three of NBC's hit show The Voice.

Todd's work in the Jewish Community began in 2008 at Chicago Jewish Day

School as the Jewish Music specialist and in 2010 he took on the Songleader role at Sinai Congregation in Chicago. After four years with Sinai, Todd moved to Deerfield with his family and transitioned his role to Lakeside Congregation, now Makom Solel Lakeside. In addition to his work at Makom, Todd teaches Jewish Music at Bernard Zell Anshe Emet Day School in Chicago and performs as a cantorial soloist for B'nai Mitzvah.

Todd is so excited to join the Anshe Emet team!

As we prepared to end the school year, our first graders of the Belle and Joseph Braun Religious School went on a "trip" to Israel - complete with flight plan, bedouin tent, shuk and a visit to the Kotel!

Here are some photos from their trip!

The SEND-A-KID-TO-ISRAEL PARTNERSHIP (SKIP) savings incentive program was created to anticipate and save for our children's Jewish education. SKIP allows families, their congregations, and JUF to become partners in planning for a young person's future Israel experience.

Please contact Naomi Richman (nrichman@ansheemet.org) for more information about partnering with JUF and AES to fund a child's Israel experience.

AES Community Announcements

For several years, Rabbi Siegel recognized a growing need in the community for Jewish gravesites within the city. In response, Anshe Emet, through its Endowment Fund, purchased 40 plots at Rosehill Cemetery in 2018. Those plots sold very quickly and with just a few remaining, the Endowment Fund has now purchased a number of additional plots available to congregants to purchase.

Founded in 1859, Rosehill Cemetery is the largest—and one of the older—cemeteries in the city of Chicago. Located in the North Ravenswood neighborhood, the park comprises 350 acres of beautifully manicured grounds that encompasses peaceful lakes, green gardens and decades of history. An architectural wonder, the Rosehill Cemetery Gatehouse dates back to 1864 and was designed by famed architect William Boyington, who also designed the Chicago Water Tower, one of the city's most recognizable historical landmarks. Unfortunately, many of the buildings designed by Boyington were destroyed in the Great Chicago Fire of 1871 and the Gatehouse is one of the few Boyington pre-fire buildings that remain. Tours of the property are available and we encourage you to visit.

If you are interested in learning more about purchasing plots in the Anshe Emet section at Rosehill, please contact Mimi Weisberg at (773) 868-5123 or mweisberg@ansheemet.org.
