

Sacred Community, Built Together

Membership at Anshe Emet Synagogue

Membership at Anshe Emet Synagogue is more than belonging to a synagogue—it is becoming part of a vibrant, caring, and deeply connected Jewish community that walks beside you through every stage of life. As one of the largest and most dynamic Conservative congregations in the country, Anshe Emet offers meaningful worship, lifelong learning, inspiring clergy, enriching relationships, and a welcoming environment where individuals and families can grow Jewishly, spiritually, and personally.

Our clergy, educators, professional staff, and lay leaders are committed to helping every member feel known, supported, and connected. Whether celebrating life's happiest moments, navigating challenges, deepening Jewish learning, or building lifelong friendships, Anshe Emet is here for you.

High Holy Days

High Holy Day services are included with memberships. With four distinct worship experiences, there is truly a space for everyone to feel comfortable, inspired, and connected.

Membership benefits include:

- Access to all High Holy Day services
- Childcare during High Holy Day services
- Discounted guest tickets for out-of-town family and friends

Please note: Associate Membership does not include High Holy Day tickets or service access.

Lifecycle Events and Pastoral Care

Anshe Emet is honored to support members through life's most meaningful moments.

Membership includes access to:

- A full B'nai Mitzvah experience, including our J2M (Journey to Mitzvah) program, clergy guidance, services in our beautiful sanctuary, and opportunities for family celebrations at Anshe Emet
- Clergy officiation at weddings, along with premarital counseling and spiritual support as couples begin their new chapter together
- Participation in brit milah and baby naming ceremonies to celebrate your growing family
- Compassionate clergy support during funerals, hospital visits, and difficult moments, offering comfort, care, and guidance when it matters most

Education and Spiritual Life

Anshe Emet offers a rich and engaging array of educational and spiritual opportunities for members of all ages and backgrounds.

Membership provides access to:

- Daily minyan services, vibrant Shabbat worship experiences, and weekly Torah study
- Thought-provoking adult education classes, text study, and learning opportunities throughout the week
- Renowned guest lecturers, scholars, and educators from across the Jewish world
- The Joseph and Belle Braun Religious School
- B'nai Mitzvah preparation and family learning opportunities
- Educational experiences designed for learners at every stage of their Jewish journey
- Yahrzeits will automatically be read at services

Community and Connection

At Anshe Emet, community is at the heart of everything we do.

Members enjoy:

- Opportunities to connect with people across a variety of ages, interests, and life stages
- Participation in affinity groups including Na'aseh, Men's Club, Sisterhood, young family programming, and more
- Volunteer and social engagement opportunities throughout the year
- Support through the Caring Committee, a compassionate network of congregants helping fellow congregants through illness, new babies, challenging times, and moments of need

Family Opportunities

Families are an integral part of our community, and we offer numerous opportunities for children and parents to learn, celebrate, and grow together.

Benefits include:

- Weekly young family services designed to engage and inspire children and parents alike
- Young family Shabbatot, holiday celebrations, and special programs throughout the year
- Religious school experiences that foster strong Jewish identities
- Family-centered programs that help children and parents connect Jewishly and socially

Preferred Pricing and Financial Assistance

Benefits include:

- Reduced rates on synagogue programs, events, celebrations, and facility rentals
- The ability to rent synagogue spaces at discounted member rates
- Purchase of cemetery plots at Rosehill Cemetery at 25% below the current market rate

At Anshe Emet, we believe financial circumstances should never be a barrier to Jewish life, community, or belonging. We are committed to working with individuals and families to ensure that membership remains accessible and welcoming to all.
